1. Policy Objectives:

Ooredoo Palestine is committed to high standards of transparency, integrity, compliance and accountability. The Whistleblowing Policy aims to provide means through which employees, contractors, customers and suppliers could, in good faith, report any activity that violates laws, regulations, policies, decisions, instructions or the Company's code of Business Conduct & Ethics.

This Policy establishes the mechanism for the receipt, analysis and processing of reports of violations of laws, regulations, policies, decisions, instructions or Company's Code of Business Conduct & Ethics. In addition, the policy also covers the issues related to the deficiencies in the system of internal controls, violation of confidentiality of the company information and fraud attempts or any errors that may have a negative impact on the Company, employees, customers, shareholders, investors or others in general.

The policy also aims to:

- Help develop a culture of openness, accountability and integrity.
- Encourage staff to report suspected wrongdoing without fear from retaliation.
- Provide staff and other stakeholders with guidance as to how to raise their concerns.
- Enable Management to be informed at an early stage about acts of misconduct.

2. Confidentiality:

Whistleblowing reports are handled with utmost confidentiality to protect the identity of the whistleblower and ensure integrity of the investigation. The following measure are implemented to maintain confidentiality.

- i. The identity of the whistleblower and the details of the report will be kept confidential at all stages of the process. Access to the information is restricted to those directly involved in the investigation and decision-making process.
- ii. Information regarding the report will only be disclosed to the individuals outside of the investigation if it is necessary for the investigation or required by law. Even in such cases, all efforts will be made to limit the disclosure to the minimum necessary.
- iii. The whistleblower's identity and related details will be stored securely and will only be accessible by authorized personnel within the Group Internal Audit department, who have legitimate need to know for the purposes of investigation.
- iv. Any communication regarding the whistleblowing report will be conducted in a secure manner, using encrypted channels or other secure methods to prevent unauthorized access.
- v. Anonymized information will be used during the investigation to protect the whistleblower's identity.

- vi. Even after the investigation has concluded, the identity of the whistleblower will remain confidential, and information about the case will not be disclosed, except as required by law.

3. Protection against Retaliation

1. The Company strictly prohibits any form of retaliation against the individuals who report concerns in good faith. Retaliation includes, but is not limited to, harassment, demotion, termination, or any other form of adverse action.
2. Any employee found to be engaging in retaliatory behavior will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
3. The Company will take immediate and appropriate action to protect the whistleblowers from retaliation. This includes measures such as reassignments, ensuring no negative impact on performance reviews and providing legal support if necessary.

4. Anonymous Reporting:

1. To further safeguard the whistleblower, the Company has established secure and anonymous reporting channels. Employees and other stakeholders can choose to report concerns anonymously if they prefer.
2. Anonymous reports will be treated with the same level of seriousness and thoroughness as those made with disclosed identities. Anonymous whistleblowers are encouraged to provide as much detail as possible to facilitate the investigation.

5. Scope:

This Policy applies to all employees of the company (full-time, part-time and temporary), in addition to external parties, including agents, contractors, suppliers, customers and generally anyone who has business relationships with the Ooredoo Palestine.

This policy governs the process of reporting and investigating inappropriate behavior and illegal activities in the company. It does not apply to company policies and procedures regarding the individual employee's grievances or complaints relating to job performance, terms and conditions of employment as these matters fall within the jurisdiction of the Grievance & Investigation Committees in accordance with grievances management process as provided in the Human Resources Policy of the company.

To ensure active implementation of this policy, the Company will publish this policy on its intranet and company websites. The company will also communicate this policy on an annual basis.

6. Definitions:

In the application of this Policy, words and phrases have the following meanings assigned to them, unless the context otherwise requires:

- i. Whistleblowing: Any notice or disclosure of information which relates to suspected violations, wrongdoing, behaviors or practices that are not consistent with Ooredoo Palestine Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, regulations, policies, decisions in force in the company, breach of a legal, statutory or regulatory requirement that may damage or prejudice the image of the Ooredoo Palestine or its subsidiaries and affiliates.
- ii. Whistleblower: A person or entity that discloses improper or illegal activities, whether an Ooredoo Palestine employees or third parties including, for example, applicants for employment, agents, consultants, suppliers, contractors, customers, partners or the general public.
The role of the whist blower is limited to reporting irregularities only, and ends at this point.
- iii. Good Faith: Good faith is assumed if reports are not made by malice or for personal benefit, and there is reasonable basis to believe that the report is true, and does not contain false information and data. In all cases, the good faith is associated with proving the authenticity of the report.
- iv. Wrongdoing/Misconduct/Improper Activities: These include practices, for example, financial fraud, violation of laws, regulations, policies, decisions, instructions, Code of Ethics and Business Conduct, mismanagement, abuse of power & authority, endangering health, safety and environment or neglect of duty.
